Behind the Lines presents another collection of some of the year's best and most relevant sports stories, produced by the awardwinning team at The42.

Ryan Bailey excavates his family history to piece together the story of his uncle, Busby Babes star Liam Whelan, on the anniversary of the Ireland midfielder's death in the Munich Air Disaster.

Murray Kinsella spends an afternoon with Munster legend John Langford in Australia to reminisce about his time with the likes of the Claw, Axel and ROG during the province's nascent glory days and Eoin O'Callaghan talks to the players who were humbled by Katie Taylor on the football pitch.

Read the story of the intercounty kitman who almost gambled away his life and the UFC hopeful living in a caravan in the gym car park as he works his way to Vegas from a life in prison... and much more.
